Why is Nicholas Chamberlaine important?

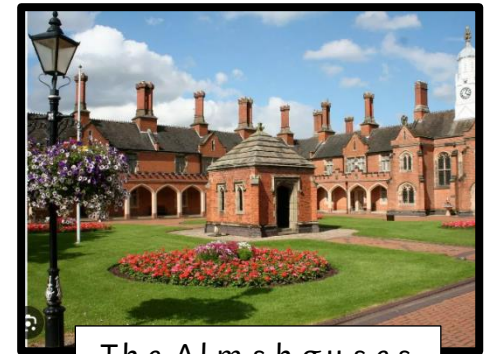

- He gave money to build the Alms houses for the poor and needy.
- When he died he left some of his money for the schools of Bedworth.
- He wanted no child to be hungry on his birthday.
- We now call it... Founder's Day or Bun Day. The children get to eat a bun on this day.
- Nicholas left money to build two schools in Bedworth. One for boys and one for girls.
