

The Stone Age - Knowledge Organiser

Important Places

Skara Brae- A stone- built Neolithic settlement, located on the Orkney Islands, Scotland.

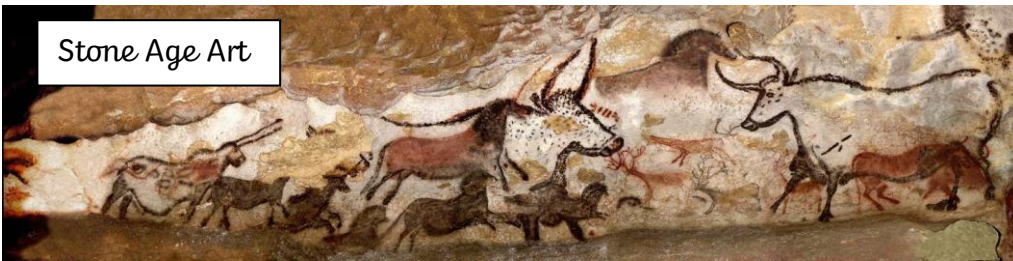

Stonehenge- A pre-historic monument in England. A ring of standing stones that are around 13 feet high.

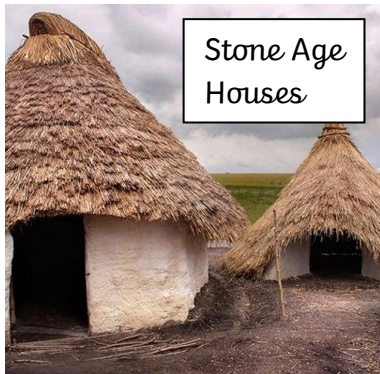

Key Vocabulary

- Stone Age- The earliest period of human culture when stone tools were first used.
- Pre- historic- The time before recorded history.
- Palaeolithic- Often known as the Old Stone Age when people were hunter- gatherers.
- Mesolithic- Often known as the Middle Stone Age when humans developed their tools.
- Neolithic- Often known as the New Stone Age when people created permanent settlements and farmed.
- Archaeologist- People that find out about the past using artefacts that have been found.

Stone Age Art

Stone Age Houses

Stone Tools

Stone Age Timeline

